NORTHUMBERLAND AND DURHAM LABRADOR RETRIEVER CLUB RULES AND REGULATIONS

1 Name and Objects

The Society shall be called Northumberland and Durham Labrador Retriever Club and its objectives shall be:

To encourage the breeding of true, healthy Labradors and to encourage the use of recognised Kennel Club Limited health schemes.

To protect the type of Labrador that has proved itself so eminently for gundog work.

To encourage Field Trials and Shows and to ensure, where possible, qualified Judges are chosen.

To help and encourage all owners, particularly those who are new and inexperienced; to seek advice in good management, training and all aspects of Labrador ownership.

2 Officers and Committee

The Society shall consist of a President, the Officers:

Chairman, Honorary Secretary, Honorary Treasurer, Vice Chairman, Field Trial Secretary, Working Test Secretary and Show Secretary, a Committee of 10 and an unlimited number of Members.

There will be a Show Sub Committee and Field Trial Sub Committee both consisting of the Officers and up to 10 elected Members.

3. Committee

The management of the Society shall be in the hands of the Officers who shall retire annually and the Committee who shall retire after three years in office. Officers and Committee members will be eligible for re-election. Officers and Committee members shall have full voting rights at Committee and General Meetings. The Chairman shall have the casting vote.

Meetings of the General, Show and Field Trial Committees shall be held as often as deemed necessary but at least one meeting shall be held every six months.

A quorum for the Annual General Meeting shall be 14. A quorum for General Committee meetings and Sub Committee meetings shall be 7.

In the event of positions becoming vacant between Annual General Meetings, the Committee shall have the power to co-opt members onto the Committee. Those co-opted shall only hold office until the next Annual General Meeting at which an election takes place. Co-opted committee members shall have voting rights at Committee meetings.

No individual who has been a member for less than one year may be elected to the Committee. If any member of the Committee, Show Committee or Field Trial Committee is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Committee without having submitted a satisfactory explanation; his/her name shall be removed from membership of the Committee. The Committee shall, if so desired, fill the vacancy ad interim.

4 Election of Members

On receipt of membership fees, all new member applications will provisionally be accepted on the proviso that they are correctly proposed and seconded. New member applications will then be reviewed at the next General Committee meeting. The Committee retain the right to decline membership and return fees without declaring the reason; during the first year of membership only.

5 List of Members

An up to date list of Members and their addresses will be maintained by the Membership Secretary and, if so requested, made available for inspection by the Kennel Club Ltd. and Members of the Society. A declaration of the number of Members of the Society will be made with Annual Returns.

6 Voting Rights

- a. Each member shall be entitled to one vote after three months as a Member
- b. Joint Members shall be entitled to one vote each
- c. Postal votes/proxy votes are not allowed
- d. Voting shall be by either show of hands or by secret ballot, at the Chairman's discretion
- e. Junior Memberships will be accepted under age 18 years without voting rights.
However those age 16 years and over may choose to pay full membership and have full voting rights.

7(a) Club Property

The property of the Society shall be vested in the Committee. In the event of the Society ceasing to exist, a final General Meeting shall be called to decide the disposal of the Society's assets and the outcome of the Meeting notified to the Kennel Club Ltd.

Cups and trophies will only be accepted on the understanding they are outright gifts to the Club and written acknowledgement from donors of cups and trophies will be obtained. Cups and trophies will only be entrusted to fully paid up Members. In the event of the Society being wound up, the Society will make attempts to return cups and trophies to the donor/or the family of the donor.

7(b) Winding up of Society

If the Society is wound up or ceases to be a Registered Society under these Regulations, a final statement of accounts with a record of the disposal of the property of the Society shall be forwarded to the Kennel Club Ltd. within six months and the persons named as Officers and Committee of the Society will be held responsible by the Kennel Club Ltd. for the proper winding up of the Society.

8 Club Accounts

Two Banking Accounts (one current and one deposit/savings account) shall be held in the name of the Society at Santander bank into which all revenue of the Society shall be paid.

Management of the day to day running of the current account will be the responsibility of the Honorary Treasurer, with the Chair also having access to both accounts via internet banking. Withdrawals from the Deposit/Savings account shall only be made on the written authorisation of two of the three other Club Officers (Chair, Vice Chair and Honorary Secretary) or decision by the full General Committee. The accounts will be certified annually and following General Committee approval, be presented to the members at the Annual General Meeting.

NB Certification of Accounts must be carried out by one qualified accountant or two unqualified individuals with accountancy experience.
